Zur,—In reply to F. J. I beg vor zay thet I shant tell at present ware I due beleeve in it or no, an awlso I muss zay thet I deeklyne tu go auver tu Thornbury tu hincownter the witches, if thay live thare shoar enuf. My first rayson is thet if I doant beleeve in mun I doant wanty vor tu; the next is if the vokes thare be a deluded I mite be tew, as 'tis an old zayin "Wan fule maketh minny," an the third is thet if thay du live thare, massy pon the donkey an me? Wy vor sartin hess shude share the fate of the ded bullocks, I shidder tu think ov the konsikinses.

Deeklyned way thaanks,

R. GILES
